HELLO AND WELCOME...

You are once again invited to browse through a tremendous selection of American numismatic literature; and to purchase items of interest pertaining to your field of endeavor.

Recently, an inquiry from Sweden asked about some coin sales that took place in 1962. I told him that they were rather scarce even in this country. I further related that I did not know where he could obtain the catalogues he was looking for. This sort of thing happens all the time with books, periodicals, fixed price lists, and other numismatic ephemera. The supply simply does not equal the demand – especially concerning the earlier material.

Speaking of supply, since we have a large amount of catalogues written and edited by Q. David Bowers, we would like to include a Free Bowers catalogue of our choice with any order. They are a wonderful addition to any library.

For the past several weeks, I've been busy finishing up the final draft of my latest book – John J. Ford, Jr., and the "Franklin Hoard". The research necessary took decades to compile, and the background story is utterly amazing. Although the Ford book is not for everyone (only 250 copies will be printed), anyone who acquires one will have a real insight into the subject of U.S. Pioneer and Territorial gold issues. See the announcement at the back of this list.

Please check through our latest offering and then send in your order – e-mail works best as I'm traveling more and more. We will get it sent out promptly.

Don't forget that the postage rates will be increasing very soon, so the early orders will save even more as we only charge actual postage costs on all shipments. Also, keep in mind we don't charge a 15% fee to purchase items from us as do auction houses. Your dollar is worth a dollar, not 85 cents.

A large selection, prompt and courteous service, free answers (in many cases), and actual shipping charges. How can you go wrong? "Learn first – buy later."

As always, we say "Thank You" and are here to assist you with finding out about this multi-faceted world of numismatics.

Best wishes,

Karl Moulton

HOW DO YOU WANT TO RECEIVE YOUR PACKAGE ?

Here are the options to choose from :

1. MEDIA MAIL (BOOK RATE). Please figure $2.65 for the first item and $1.00 for each additional item, along with insurance from the table below. We always charge actual postage. New rates will go into effect the first part of May 2009, and we will adjust your shipping accordingly. For shipping purposes, count five PR's as one item. This is how most orders will be shipped unless another choice is requested and prepaid. This option takes anywhere from 5 to 30 days for your package to arrive.
2. FLAT RATE. Please figure $5.10 for items that will fit into a flat rate envelope. Larger orders will go in priority flat rate boxes at $12 where applicable. Add insurance from the table below. We always charge actual postage. New rates will go into effect the first part of May 2009, and shipping will be adjusted accordingly. Due to the cost, priority shipping charges and insurance must be prepaid. It will take 2 to 7 days for your package to arrive, as the post office will not guarantee delivery within three days.
3. OTHER. We will be happy to ship by Fed Ex using your account number, or prepaid including pick-up and other applicable Fed Ex fees.

NOTE : Shipping your order may cost more or less than the estimates above depending upon weight. Any additional charges will be billed based upon actual cost. Insured packages can be traced only after 30 days (the Post Office's policy). New rates will be in effect as of the first part of May 2009, and the above will be adjusted accordingly.

* Any order of $50 or more for merchandise keeps you on our mailing list for one entire year. ****

PACKING & HANDLING : Please add the following charges for the number of items you order:

1 - 5	$.75 per item
6 - 10	$ 5.00 Total
11 - 20	$ 7.00 Total
21 - 30	$10.00 Total
31 - 40	$12.00 Total
41 - 50	$15.00 Total
51 or more	$20.00 Total

This helps cover the cost of boxes, strapping tape, packing for the catalogues, labels, etc.
The charges listed above are, in every case, lower than the per lot fees charged in mail bid sales.

INSURANCE : We insure most packages. Please add charges from the table below:
New rates will be in effect the first part of May '09. Actual charges will apply.

FORMAN, TAXAY, AND ASSOC.

12/06/74	Philadelphia, 90pp., 653 Lots Scarce. Some underlining in catalogue. Don Taxay's last cataloguing efforts. Among the promotional descriptions is an 1807 quarter with "partial reeding". Having studied the early quarters for nearly 20 years, I can state that there are no 1807 quarters known that display full reeding. Taxay went to work for FCI two months after this sale and lasted for six months at that job. When he quit, FCI president Stanley Apfelbaum had this to say: "Whatever integrity Taxay had built through the channels of advertising and public relations when with F.C.I., this has been damaged horribly by his blatant ego trip combined with his cheap commercialism."	50.

Many of these early sales show their age in slightly ragged edges, stained paper, thin spines, and occasional notations. Some have been folded for mailing, and to fit in the vest pocket for the days of the sale. Others have been improperly stored over the last 100+ years. All are fully useable copies and we have tried to accurately note any of these faults.

These Haseltine sales, long ignored because of their lack of promotion in the descriptions, are a veritable wealth of information to the serious numismatic researcher. A prime example of this can be found in this sale, which contains an 1838-O Half Dollar. You will not find this offering of an 1838-O Half mentioned in anyone's pedigrees in any references because no one has taken the time to check. According to Haseltine's information, at this early juncture, there were six examples known. Get these Haseltine catalogues

03/03/61 Edwin Hydeman, 40pp., 1311 Lots	This sale should have been one of the most memorable sales of the 20 th century. Unfortunately, Kosoff's cataloguing kept it from being well remembered. This starts off on the forward when he makes note of the "King of American Coins – the "1904" Silver Dollar. However, with that having been said, the material offered was phenomenal. Think about this list: the Idler 1804 Silver Dollar, the Olsen 1913 Liberty Head Nickel, the Neil 1894-S Proof Barber Dime, the Kern 1876-CC 20-cent piece, an 1841 Quarter Eagle, an 1879 Stella in Aluminum with another in gold, a 1922 Matte Proof Peace Dollar, hundreds of Patterns, and the unique 1866 Quarter and Half Dollar without Motto. Need I say more?	45.

A VERY SPECIAL OFFERING

1960 - 1969 COMPLETE RUN OF ALL 66 SALES

The 1960s was perhaps the most dramatic decade of the last century. At the time the Stack's firm presented many spectacular collections. Some of the important catalogues in this group are the Milton Holmes collection of early copper, the 1804 Silver Dollar in the Fairbanks sale, the Cox collection of half dollars, and the Samuel Wolfson two part collection of choice U.S. material. In 1963 the George Walton collection was offered, but failed to include his genuine 1913 Liberty Head Nickel. For early quarter collectors the Grant Pierce collection in 1965 is a must have. The following year the Conway Bolt sale was another important offering. In 1967 the Charles Jay sale offered Colonials and early copper, along with a 1792 Birch Cent, an 1827 overdate restrike quarter, an 1838-O Half, and the unique 1866 No Motto Proof Dollar. This decade was capped off by the two part offering of the R.L. Miles collection of U.S. coinage, which contained some of the finest known American rarities.

We are fortunate to offer one set only of this significant run of Stack's sales for..... 1295.

The foregoing list comprises the largest selection of American numismatic catalogues available anywhere. Believe it or not, many of these items are one-of-a-kind, even though we have 10,000 catalogues in stock. The smart person is one who values knowledge.

There is much to learn regarding American numismatics; and, in certain cases, a person's interest changes along the way. Having a quality reference library is the only real way to keep ahead. Why not take advantage of these offerings right now and e-mail your order?

As always we say "thank you" and are here to serve.

limits, that dealers need not fear the one, nor hope for the other. The usual range is from 875 to 905; the average is 885 to 890. These figures refer of course to the gold after melting. In that operation there is an average loss of $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent., owing mainly to the presence of the oxide of iron which covers and penetrates every grain. If the gold grains should be dampened, or saturated with water, as is frequently their condition on opening at the Mint, the loss in melting may reach to 4 per cent. But assuming the grains to be dry, it results from the above data that the gold is worth, at mint rates, from \$17 63 to \$18 23 per ounce, and on the average from \$17 84 to \$17 94, not counting the silver contained. Bar-gold, having already sustained its loss in melting, is of course worth $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. more. When the gold is presented in sufficient quantity, the increase from silver parted will be about ten cents per ounce. The following will be a guide to determine what is the requisite quantity; useful to depositors from North Carolina, and New Granada, as well as California, who wish to save their silver.

Gold 850 fine, minimum weight 35 ounces.

860	38
870	43
880	48
890	55
900	73
905	81
915	104

(The weight is after melting.)

In the printed report already mentioned, it was stated as our impression at that time, in reference to platinum accompanying California gold, that it existed in but small relative quantity. This is still found to be true; in a single instance, however, it was present in sufficient quantity to reduce the fineness, even below the limit given. In such case it does not alloy uniformly, but appears in specks or clots through the mass of metal. The amount of platinum in the case mentioned, was 47 parts per thousand.

The alloy of the gold ordinarily, is wholly silver, with a little iron. It is the coating of the oxide of iron which gives the gold its rich hue, almost resembling that of fine gold. As that is removed in melting, the metal comes out so much paler than before, that persons unacquainted with the matter might suspect a wilful admixture of silver. The people of California understand this, from the comparison of bars and coins made there, with the native grains. We need not send coals to Newcastle; but on our side of the Union, small samples will be interesting.

V. RECAPITULATION OF THE NET MINT VALUE OF GOLD AND SILVER COINS, ISSUED WITHIN TWENTY-FIVE YEARS PAST.

N.B. Inquiry has been frequently made at the Mint for a compend of the values of foreign coins, without a due consideration of the difficulty of putting in a small space such a statement as would be satisfactory. The quarto volume, to which this is supplementary, was not found too large for its purpose, which was to supply such information as dealers, amateurs, and legislators, would from time to time be likely to require. Still, a condensed table of the coins more usually seen, and within a contracted range of date, would certainly be useful to dealers and others, and especially with the modifications occasioned by the new mint tariff of charges. We therefore offer the following, inserting values only, and leaving the details of legal weight and fineness, and of actual weight and fineness, to be sought for in the larger work; as also the particulars concerning coinage of older date than just specified.

1849 MANUAL OF GOLD AND SILVER COINS

This original and unassuming cover belongs to one of the premier rarities of American numismatic literature – “A Manual of Coins and Bullion...” written by Jacob R. Eckfeldt and William E. Du Bois, with the 20-page supplement to 1850. There are 240 pages total with samples of real '49er California Gold on p.235.

The following roster of presently known examples with the gold samples will reveal the true rarity of this highly sought after publication.

- 1) Eric P. Newman (circa 1961)
- 2) Dan Hamelberg, deluxe 1855 binding (ex-Richard S. McCulloch, unknown intermediaries, Armand Champa I, lot 214)
- 3) Dan Hamelberg, W.E. Du Bois' copy (ex-Kolbe sales 5/1988, lot 999 & 12/1988, lot 12)
- 4) Karl Moulton (ex-Charles B. Turrill)
- 5) Henry Clifford sale, lot 488, Dan Friedus, unknown current owner
- 6) John J. Ford Library I sale, lot 432, rebound, (ex-William Downing) @ $9200
- 7) This example, previously unknown (ex-John K. Hall, Boston 1859)
- 8–12 (?) Q. David Bowers, Stack's, American Numismatic Society, John Adams, Other

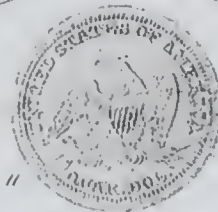

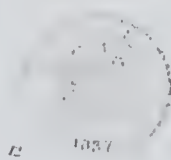

The covers show much wear, with the front one being completely separated at the spine. However, the inside pages and plates are nearly free of foxing (brown acid spots in the paper). The gold embossed plate of Pioneer coinage on a royal blue background is fresh as can be, while the all important white mica packet, with the natural and refined California gold samples is securely fastened in place. The page of Mormon Coins is bound-in at the rear. EVERYTHING IS COMPLETE AS ISSUED. The 5-band spine reads: Manual of Coins and Bullion / with Supplement to 1850 / Eckfeldt and Du Bois. Additionally, the earliest image of an 1804 silver dollar (from the original 1842 edition) can be found on plate 6. This is the very first (and rarest) of only three American numismatic books ever published to contain any California gold.

PARRINO, J.:	1995 Fixed Price List, Coins, 22pgs.	Although there are no pictures included, the stunning 10-line descriptions of each coin make this a collectible in its own right. There are several $1million price tags listed, and one of the favorite descriptions is found in the 1793 Wreath Cent. If you were willing to give $1.25million, the description of "this coin could make you legendary forever" would accompany this piece. Of course, in Jay's unique style of salesmanship another 1793 Wreath Cent description, for $500,000, says this, "stop and think about it...you must consider this monster!!!" It sure is tough to sell dupes	15.

	Supplement to Standard Catalogue, 1943, Due to the war there was no Standard Catalogue published in 1943. This scarce, self-covered, 16-page supplement

	Standard Catalogue, 1934, First Edition, Hardbound, Several names of previous owners on freely. Silver on front cover mostly intact. Scarce	40.
	Standard Catalogue, 1947, 224 pgs., Hardbound, 12 th Edition, Red Covers w/gold lettering. Wayte Raymond does not receive the recognition or the credit he deserves for his contributions to American numismatics. This 1947 edition contains over 1,000 illustrations and mintage figures precisely like the new copycat, but cheaper, Guide Book of United States Coins put out by Whitman Publishing later that year. It's interesting that when Whitman came out with their first publication in 1942 (The Bluebook), it had blue covers and gold lettering just like Wayte Raymond's 1941 Standard Catalogue. Gosh, how original! This '47 Standard Catalogue is nicer and scarcer than the first Redbook.	50.

WEYL, A.:	Jules Fonrobert, Part II, Central American & Mexican Coinage, 1878, 1974 Reprint, Hardbound. This covers lots 6206 – 10203. The Fonrobert sale is an enigma unto itself. Supposedly, it was put together in the space of 10 years from 1868 – 1877. Most pedigrees regarding the more important coins that were offered in these sales begin with Fonrobert, there's nothing earlier.
